The alleged illegal activities set forth in the Complaint in Forfeiture (R. 1) – concerning Claimant Ryan P. Sheridan – are the subject of a related health care fraud/money laundering investigation in this district. In this regard, 18 U.S.C. Sections 981(g)(1) and 981(g)(2) provide as follows:

(g)(1) Upon the motion of the United States, the court shall stay the civil forfeiture proceeding if the court determines that civil discovery will adversely affect the ability of the Government to conduct a related criminal investigation or the prosecution of a related criminal case.

(g)(2) Upon the motion of a claimant, the court shall stay the civil forfeiture proceeding with respect to that claimant if the court determines that –

(A) the claimant is the subject of a related criminal investigation or case;

(B) the claimant has standing to assert a claim in the civil forfeiture proceeding;
and

(C) continuation of the forfeiture proceeding will burden the right of the claimant against self-incrimination in the related investigation or case.

The undersigned counsel for the United States respectfully represents to the Court that a stay of the instant civil forfeiture action is necessary to protect the government's related criminal investigation/potential criminal prosecution of Ryan P. Sheridan from the expansive scope of civil discovery that would be required in this case. This case is directly related to the ongoing criminal health care fraud/money laundering investigation. Should this case not be stayed, civil discovery could severely compromise confidential law enforcement sources/information, as well as provide improper opportunities for the Claimants to prematurely ascertain the details of the government's criminal investigation.

In addition, the undersigned counsel for the Claimants respectfully represents to the Court that the related criminal investigation/potential criminal prosecution necessitates a stay of the instant civil forfeiture action in order to fully preserve the Fifth Amendment rights of Claimant Ryan P. Sheridan. If this case is not stayed, Ryan P. Sheridan – as a Claimant and as the sole member of the remaining Claimant entities – could be required to respond to the allegations set forth in the Complaint in Forfeiture (R. 1) through pleadings, discovery and otherwise. The United States has represented that the activities alleged in its detailed Complaint in Forfeiture (R. 1) are the same activities as, and overlap with, the related criminal investigation. Therefore, responding to the allegations, and otherwise defending against the civil forfeiture case, would not only jeopardize Mr. Sheridan's Fifth Amendment rights and potentially permit the United States to use that information in any related criminal proceedings, but could also permit discovery beyond that allowed under Criminal Rule 16 and could expose Mr. Sheridan's potential defenses to the alleged conduct.

BASED UPON THE FOREGOING, the parties respectfully request the entry of an Order staying the instant civil forfeiture case pending the completion of the related criminal investigation/potential criminal prosecution of Claimant Ryan P. Sheridan. The parties further request that the Order grant the Claimants an extension of time to file their Answers to the Complaint in Forfeiture (R. 1) until further Order of the Court. Should an indictment be returned against Claimant Sheridan, it is noted that the outcome of those criminal proceedings likely would determine the outcome of the instant case. A proposed order is attached.

Respectfully submitted,
